

Investigation of Tree Failures

Primary Clients: Insurance Professionals, Attorneys

Tree Associates provides expert opinions why trees fall or lose limbs. The investigation of tree failures involves a systematic identification of structural defects which were associated with the tree failure. In many cases, this involves aerial inspection, root crown examination, or investigation to determine the extent of decay.